

cAbiners is a folk acoustic duo made up of Dayv Poulin & Loni Konkal.

The duo met in 2014 and began performing live together in 2017 with the name cAbiners which represented their relaxed and inviting vibe. The key to cAbiners success is simplicity: one guitar, two voices, bathed in beautiful harmonies and blends. They perform an eclectic variety of cover and original material.

Dayv Poulin has been a professional musician for over 20 years with projects like Toe Jam Tequila, Le Paysagiste, Konflit Dramatik and Orchid Thieves. Loni is relatively new on the professional music scene, but has grown up singing and surrounded by a family of musicians.

The band has played some great festivals (Sawdust City Music Festival, Rock on the river (with Walk Off the Earth), Smoke & Spurs, etc), and have been playing a ton of weddings, clubs and private events.
